THE CHINESE AND RUSSIANS ARE PREPARING TO CARRY OUT AN ALL-OUT INVASION OF THE UNITED STATES

Submitted by Dave Hodges on Monday, December 21, 2020 - 16:32.

People laughed at me when I first published the intentions of the Russians and the Chinese to attack the United States from all sides as this was in 2014. In 2020, when I again raised the possibility, some people howled. Today, we sit on the edge of this happening.

Steve Quayle once told me that he was seeing unprecedented military movement in Montana. Today, scarcely a day goes by that I do not get a reported sighting of either Chinese or Russian troops on US soil. These sightings are common on National Forest Grounds. In fact, what we are we seeing is the mobilization for war. Russia and China are preparing to invade the United States and they have been for sometime.

BY THE WAY, EVERY EXPERT I SPEAK WITH SAYS THAT HACKING INTO OUR NUCLEAR FACILITIES IS AN OVERT ACT AND A PRELUDE TO WAR!!!!

In 2016, I first wrote that I believed that we would be attacked when our nation was embroiled in a violent internal dispute when the attack comes. The violent struggle has arrived and it is called BLM, Antifa and anything George Soros touches. At that time, I identified 7 phases, or prongs of attack that were coming based upon US war gaming that I was told about. Plans change an in today's world, the attack parameters have been expanded to nine phases of subjugation culminating in genocide.

As the domestic struggle worsens, at some point, the United Nations will invoke the Kigali Principles and be in charge of the invading force. In other words, it is likely that Chinese and Russian forces will be wearing blue helmets at the time of the invasion of America. And as I written about over the past several years, previous Russian defectors have warned of this possibility.

The Attack

When these forces attack the United States, the attack will come as the result of a nine-pronged strategy and it will involve multiple allies under the direction of the United Nations. What I have learned is that the Naval War College has practiced each one of these scenarios, multiple times, since I first reported on these scenarios. In every case, America becomes Amerika. In other words, surrender is the only option in order to avoid complete annihilation. Here are the seven different fronts from which Russia and her allies will launch an all out attack, which will make use of limited cyber attacks upon the grid.

Steve Quayle recently told me that he is seeing unprecedented military movement in Montana. Many are reporting the same all around the country. What we are we seeing is the mobilization for war. Russia and China are preparing to invade the United States. It is my belief that we will be embroiled in a violent internal dispute when the attack comes. The United Nations will invoke the Kigali Principles and be in charge of the invading force. Since I first reported on leaked information that American military leaders were expecting an attack from seven different areas/sources, more information has come to light. First, elements of the following scenarios have been repetitively practiced at the Naval War College. In each instance, America loses, badly. See the Deagel Report which tells us that in just over 4 years, most Americans will be dead.

Here is an update on newly acquired information which has added to our understanding of what is coming and our military leaders know it as many of them provided information to me with regard to a combination Russian and Chinese attack upon our country. And as I written about over the past several years, previous Russian defectors have warned of this possibility.

Phase One: A Fifth Column Attack

Facilitated by the Deep State and the Democrats a fifth column attack is already underway in America. It is largely compromised of Antifa and BLM. However, these groups along with the level of their attacks, pales as what is coming to America. What is coming is an all out 5th column attack and it will be carried out by terrorists who have already gained entrance into the United States. Key assassinations and critical infrastructure sabotage will be carried out by these forces. Random acts of violence will be perpetrated upon the American people including the slaughter of innocent Americans, the attack upon schools and malls will be common. I have often referred to this as the coming TET Offensive in which all the embedded terrorists will simultaneously attack America in dozens of locations.

Phase Two: The Alaskan Front

The Alaskan Front will see the Russians attacking the lower 48 from Alaska after our most northern state is quickly overwhelmed. This will likely be preceded by an attack upon Taiwan in which American forces will drawn away from America to defend Taiwan, thus weakening the home defense. Two years ago, the Chinese, Russians and Mongolians practiced the invasion of Alaska.

Phase Three: The Cascadian Invasion

In close proximity to the invasion of Alaska, massive amounts of Chinese troops will pour across the Canadian border and consume the West coast. Embedded Chinese, already in America, thanks to the Chinese control of the port system, will seize key assets, similar to what Army Ranger paratroopers do prior to an advance. Over the past 3 weeks, I have covered CANZUK and the amassing of Chinese troops in Vancouver, British Colombia. As previously covered on the CSS, America is being separated from its allies and we will stand alone against what is underway and what is coming.

When these CHICOM troops cross the border, they will fan out and invade Idaho, Montana and seize the oil fields of Wyoming.

Taking prisoners is not part of the plan.

Phase Four: Red Dawn

The Central American Front will witness a conglomeration of 30 Central and South American states (i.e. CELAC) which will combine military strike forces, backed by Russian military supplies, weapons, technology and strategy. These forces will push north through Central America and will attack America from the south. Presently, El Salvador, Colombia and Brazil are the only American allies left. Trump has strategically diminished the potential success of such an invasion. However, this will still tie up American resources which will deplete military resources elsewhere. Remember, the ability for the United States to fight a prolonged campaign was greatly diminished because of the economic devastation caused by the planned COVID lockdowns and the economic devastation that followed!

Phase Five: The Southeastern Invasion

The Southeastern Front will witness an amphibious invasion following the successes of the first of three fronts in which major American military assets will be deployed away from the Southeast to defend against the scissors attack from America's Northwest and the Southwest. The invasion will come out of Cuba. Many thousands of Chinese forces have deployed in Cuba via Mexico. The Russian Navy and Air Force will supply support.

Phase Six: Calexit and Other Paramilitary Assets Located In California

In a secondary and delayed attack, CALEXIT backed Chinese forces embedded in American ports (e.g. Long Beach), who have entered the country in cargo ships, will be unleashed to attack key military bases in California. At the same time, Chinese soldiers, who are embedded in the Sierra Madras will join forces with the Latin American forces as they sweep northward through Mexico and will dramatically burst through the border and then fan out to the north, west and east.

Phase Seven: Russian Attack from the Arctic

Russian forces will come out of the Arctic and sweep down through Canada and will attack the U.S. through Minnesota. This will allow the Russian led forces to cut the United States in half at the Mississippi River. The amphibious landings in the Southeast will make their way north on the Mississippi River with Naval vessels. These forces will link up with the Russians coming in from the North.

I am already getting reports of sightings of heavily armed Chinese on the lakes and tributaries in Minnesota.

Phase Eight: Turning Out the Lights and Starving the Northeast

UN controlled Chinese and Russian forces would prefer to not have to enter major American forces in the Northeast. Urban conflict is the most expensive in terms of men and material. Subsequently, this region can effectively expect chemical weapons to be unleashed on the Northeast. These weapons can be completely deadly and then the effects will fade over time, thus allowing for occupation. Some analysts expect parts of the military in this region to defect and join forces with the enemy. Also, another popular option consists of the use of neutron weapons which will kill people, but leave the infrastructure intact.

Phase Nine: Surrender and Subsequent Genocide

The Americans in this region will be allowed to surrender. However, they will quickly be transported to FEMA camps and makeshift FEMA camps. The last three Chinese Defense Ministers have advocated for the complete extermination of all people in North America, prior to colonization.

Trudeau and his traitors might be well-advised to pay attention because this involves the elimination of people in the newly formed state of Canuckistan. Yes, these will be the camps that I have frequently spoke about. All the Brown Shirt traitors (eg Biden, Harris, Pelosi, Feinstein et al) will be executed by the Chinese as they hate dishonorable traitors.

Conclusion

Trump knows! Why do you think our troops from Afghanistan are being recalled and repositioned for the coming conflict? I hope you are armed and prepped and no how to hide!

With the hacking our nuclear facilities and the amassing of CHICOM troops on the Canadian border, perhaps people will stop laughing and starting preparing!

hey Dave...strange thing happened here in the bitterroot valley about a week or ten days ago...a single military aircraft flying at tree top level in circles. I personally did not see the air craft but heard it real time....saw it on my son's phone via face book and now it's gone! From the video I could'nt make out any particular country, but it looked like a F14 or 22....but I am not an aircraft officianado. We do not get that kind of activity around here like this at all, but there is an air force base in Great Falls....who knows whats going on...just FYI > about 4 months back I had 2 military helicopters with electronic warfare antennas fly directly down my property line and over me at about 50 feet in the air. Almost clipping the tree tops. The feds often will disable a cell phone so that you can not take photos. A friend had a similar experience with black helicopters last year and his cell phone would not take photos during this time.

I'm Dreaming of Red Dawn for Xmas.

Dave - I am thankful for all you do. You are a stand up guy giving it all and I appreciate that. I live off grid on a remote lake in the middle of a national forest in northern Mn. If these reports are current, I would have have to say those reporting them don't know anything about Minnesota. The lakes here are frozen solid. By solid I mean over 1 foot of ice. We are driving pick up trucks on the ice right now and it will remain that way until April. Our low temp tomorrow night will be -15 below zero. The only way you are patrolling lakes is on snowshoes. As far as national forests go, we hunt,fish and trap in these woods everyday. We live here because we knew this was coming. Nobody travels these woods without us knowing. God bless.

I would think China would be more likely to attack because of their inability to feed their people and other problems. However, if they attack, do they not leave themselves open to being attacked by India, Australia, So. Korea, Japan, Taiwan, Vietnam, and other forces. The destruction of the 4 Gorges Dam would be devastating for them. Wouldn't they prefer to see if Biden hands them the U.S? Would Russia want to face nuclear destruction when things are going well for them? In the aftermath would Russia want to face China and NWO forces? What do they have to fear from the U.S.? Would either country want face nuclear devastation? Do they know the capability of our secret weapons, space force, etc.? I would wait for the U.S. to destroy itself

Did it ever occur, that possibly TRUMP is in on all this?? I mean let’s just think seriously for a moment. If he does nothing that helps, then where does he stand? It is either one side or the other, period. Wouldn’t that be a massive depressing disappointment to learn that the one person people thought of as who could fix everything was actually a team player for the very people he publicly claims to be against? This may not be very likely to many, but is it so far fetched that it is not possible? If he really loved this country would he have just let all those people destroy our cities for so long? Wouldn't he have done more than sanctions on china for election theft and the big hack? Please reflect on this...its bothering me terribly.

Dave, you have made some far reaching accusations, that need far reaching solid evidence. This is the umpteenth time you've mentioned hordes of Chinese troops in Vancouver and B.C. proper. If so, someone should have produced irrevocable photo evidence of this by now. Where is it? And this insistence the U.S. will be on its own as if Canada didn't exist, Trudeau not withstanding. One more point Dave. The United States educational system, of whatever form it morphs into, had better start re-teaching grammar and spelling to the populace judging by the letters posted with this article. A little spelling and grammar practice may help you as well.

TOO MUCH TRANSPARENCY CAN BE VERY BAD. In these difficult times our President must fiercely defend America's sovereignty and the U.S. Constitution, but a GROUP OF PATRIOTS are MAKING HIS JOB EVEN HARDER THAN IT ALREADY IS. For transparency's sake, this well-meaning group is doing their darnedest to guess President Trump's EVERY NEXT MOVE based on military air flight patterns, to publicize the topics of discussion at every White House meeting and who attended, and to DECODE CRYPTIC messages from President Trump—all this on the internet where our worst enemies can see. Donald J. Trump never made a campaign promise to publicize every move he's about to make. CURIOSITY DOES NOT ENTITLE THE CURIOUS TO KNOW EVERY STRATEGIC MOVE THE POTUS MAKES.

Maybe the upcoming "vaccine" will be the start of the culling of Americans. The political officials only getting a placebo during their public vaccination, not the actual vaccine to fool the gullible. The actual vaccine will become toxic after a few weeks to give time for a lot of people to get it without being alarmed.

I think that they may be thinking of this but if we are Babylon, (I believe we are) prophecy says that we fall in a single hour... This is far too long and drawn out. I rather expect a nuclear attack that takes out the whole nation, especially the power grid. Scripture also indicates that the radiation will be sufficient to keep the bad guys out, leaving the first wave survivors to slowly die alone... Blessed are those who die in the initial blast!
